

Springwater 7th Ward

April 19, 2026

Even as the world seems full of commotion, faithful Latter-day Saints around the world have flooded heaven with prayers, petitioning the Lord for help, comfort, direction and peace.

Opening the windows of heaven through prayer does not require many words or flowery language.

“Heavenly Father requires us to ‘pour out [our] souls’ in private places and have our hearts ‘drawn out in prayer unto him continually’ (Alma 34:26-27).”

The sons of Mosiah received spiritual strength from continued prayer. Their example shows that consistent prayer during joyous times and also during distress and grief will be rewarded according to God’s will and perfect timing.

“I bear my testimony that the Savior’s promise is true and that a humble prayer for peace in your heart will be honored.”
