“God has given His children moral agency—the power to decide and to act. The most desirable condition for the exercise of that agency is maximum freedom for men and women to act according to their individual choices. Then, ... “every man may be accountable for his own sins in the day of judgment “Therefore,” the Lord revealed, “it is not right that any man should be in bondage one to another” (Doctrine and Covenants 101:79). This obviously means that human slavery is wrong. And according to the same principle, it is wrong for citizens to have no voice in the selection of their rulers or the making of their laws.”

“What was God’s purpose in establishing the United States Constitution? We see it in the doctrine of moral agency.”

President Dallin H. Oaks, Defending Our Divinely Inspired Constitution, April 2021
